I didn't see you walk in -- Kevin McCarthy was on the phone asking me about crypto. Very interesting times.

 1/ some kind of public statement (e.g., interview, op-ed, etc.) in support that XRP is a commodity (we can draft it for him)
 2/ We created a white paper comparing ETH and XRP that paints the picture that they are very similar from a regulation point of view. We could have him publish it
 3/ Meet with Clayton to advocate for favorable XRP determination (as a commodity)
